

Emergency Operations Center

APPENDIX C

EMERGENCY OPERATIONS CENTER

Southeastern Louisiana University has developed an Emergency Operations Center (EOC), as a central command and control facility. The mission of the EOC is to carry out the printy beginning of the EOC management, or disaster or disaster of the control of the control of the EOC management, or disaster or disaster or the control of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the printy of the EOC is to carry out the EOC is to carry out

• Coordination with Hammond Police Department and other emergency The EOC facilitates the the seal titles to see the degree of the disaster. Generally, Emergency Operations Centers collect, gather, and analyze data; make decisions that protection of the University and maintain continuity of the University within the scope of applicable laws. The EOC Manager, (Southeastern Louisiana University Chief of the formal leta friends the translation of the Southeastern hat is the exity of the southeast of the first floor of Pride Hall, room number 132, wht 2 effe

Training

Training of departments, faculty, staff, and students is conducted according to state federal and regional laws.

- University Police Department maintains a training program that centers on the prevention of and response to emergency situations.
- Department Heads, Directors, and Building Coordinators develop and conduct training programs for faculty, staff and student workers addressing safety and emergency situations.
- Student Housing has developed and conducts training for resident students addressing emergency situations.