Purpose of Policy

In accordance with these principles, Southeastern faculty, staff, and students have the freedom to assemble and engage in spontaneous expressive activity, provided it is lawful, does not disrupt the functioning of the institution, and participants do not violate other university policies.

Applicability

This policy applies to all Southeastern students, faculty, staff, and visitors

Circle. Although other campus locations may be available for public speech and assemblies by students without prior administrative approval, these locations are recommended due to the high volume of student traffic.

Groups and organizations who choose to engage in expressive activity outside of one of the preferred locations may be asked to relocate should the expressive activity interfere with the normal operations of the university.

Students, faculty, and staff may use these areas of campus without prior permission from the university as long as (1)

The area has not been previously reserved or scheduled for a particular activity; (2) No sound amplification is used; and (3) Participants do not violate university policies.

Although faculty, staff, and students are permitted to assemble and engage in expressive activity without obtaining prior permission, registration with the Office of the Dean of Students is encouraged to ensure adequate arrangements and minimize possible scheduling conflicts.

Outside Groups: Registratioof Activities

Students who believe their First Amendment rights have been violated in any manner should file a grievance with the Office of the Dean of Students. Reports can be made online at www.southeastern.edu/reportit
