

Performance Evaluation

This policy applies to Unclassified Staff only.

Performance and task standards are established for each position. Within thirty (30) days of hire supervisors should communicate performance and behavioral expectations so that there will be a clear understanding as to what is considered standard performance of the tasks assigned. Employees are evaluated annually, generally